Saturday

Attitude + Attention = Teamwork

Focus will be directed at the trainer/handler: We're going to look at the way people train and dissect it. We're also going to look at the HANDLER'S attitude and attention. Through this approach we'll ultimately bolster the DOG'S attitude and attention, so that the end result is teamwork. There are 7 basic topics that we will cover, subjects that must be addressed in order to succeed and ultimately attain teamwork.

Sunday

The Art of Proofing for Ring Readiness

This talk is directed at proofing all fundamental skills and exercises for the three classes, Novice, Open, and Utility. I will explain proofing and its function, then present the three different levels of proofing and how they would be applied.

Demonstrations and working teams would be utilized.

About Catherine Zinsky:

- + Catherine has handled her dogs to breed Championships, Obedience Trial Championship, UDX titles and the Obedience Grand Master Title.
- + Kyle went from his 1st Novice leg to OTCH in 6 months. He now has 1000 OTCH points and a UDX 19. In 2010 he finished his Obedience Grand Masters Title.
- + She recently brought out her young Border Collie, Kellan. Kellan went from his first Novice leg to a Utility UD title in just 9 consecutive trials, earning 3 High in Trials and one perfect "200" score and all within 2 months.

Becoming a decent trainer has given me the gift of patience. Working with my dogs has shown me the beauty of unselfish love, of individuality, and of true devotion. It goes both ways..." -Catherine Zinsky
